COVID-19 PRIMARY CARE SURVEY
WEEK 8: May 1 - 4 2020
PRACTICES REPORTING

LONG TERM REPERCUSSIONS

- 38% believe non-COVID deaths will occur after pandemic due to diverted or avoided care
- 56% believe the primary care system will be overwhelmed by health needs pent up
- 61% believe that some of their patients will experience avoidable illness due COVID

PATIENT VOLUME

- 71% believe patient volume will be different after the pandemic ends, stemming from lack of attention to existing chronic conditions and preventive care services

MENTAL HEALTH NEEDS

- 32% respondents expect to see a dramatic increase in the prevalence of substance abuse among their patients
- 24% expect to see dramatic increases in domestic violence among their patients. 74% expect to see an increase in patients with mental health needs.